Prayer Nut with the Mass of Saint Gregory and the Virgin of the Rosary is on the second floor of the museum.

GO! Prayer Nut with the Mass of Saint Gregory and the Virgin of the Rosary is on the second floor of the museum.

NOTICE! This itty bitty object is carved of boxwood—known for being very hard. If you look closely, you’ll see Latin inscriptions that translate to: “For God so loved the world,” “Thou art fair, my love,” “Greater love hath no man than this,” and “sweet and beautiful as Jerusalem.” Why was the object made so small?
WRITE! If you were to create a wearable work of art, what words might you include?

How small can you write? Add an inscription as tiny as you can in the space below:

Bonus: You’ve discovered the smallest work of art in the galleries. Can you find the largest?
